

Browning's "My Last Duchess" and Dramatic Monologue

Student Name _____ Date _____

As you examine a character within the poem, use the following chart to help cite the line number(s) from the poem that support your claim. As you progress through the poem, remember that everything in the poem is from the Duke's perspective, and that as the auditor [listener], it is your job to assess [determine] if the Duke is revealing more than he intends. Remember: your claims must be supported by textual evidence, rather than conjecture.
